AN ETCHED PROFILE PORTRAIT OF
WASHINGTON BY JOSEPH
HILLER, JR., 1794.

BY CHARLES HENRY HART.

To the Historical Collections of the Essex Institute, Vol. XVI, p. 161, I had the honor to contribute a brief "Notice of a Portrait of Washington." The portrait there noticed was the etched profile made by Joseph Wright, in 1790, and at the period I wrote, 1879, we were in our infancy in the study of Washington iconography; indeed that "Notice" was my first important contribution, in print, to the subject. Since then I have published enough to have earned the illustrious name of "Washington," as a sobriquet, and while engaged in the preparation of my Catalogue of the Engraved Portraits of Washington, issued by the Grolier Club, New York, January, 1904, in a sumptuous quarto of 406 pages, I discovered in the cabinet of the Massachusetts Historical Society, an etched profile of Washington, which was new to me and evidently copied from the one by Wright, signed "J HILLER Jun<sup>r</sup> Sculp<sup>t</sup>, 1794." In seeking the history of this print, I found, in the Proceedings of the Society, for February 12, 1874, (Vol. 13, p. 243) the following note;—

Mr. Brooks presented, in the name of Mr. A. H. Safford, of Cambridge, a pen and ink sketch of Washington, executed by J. Hiller Jr., in 1794. Mr. Safford's belief was that the miniature was presented by General Washington to Captain Thomas Hartshorn, of Reading, who died in 1819. It had been in Mr. Safford's possession for over fifty years, he having been a foster son of Captain Hartshorn. The drawing is sketched on the back of a playing card,—the ten of diamonds. The name of "George Washington" is inscribed on a scroll beneath the picture and beneath the oval, in which the picture is enclosed, is, "J. Hiller, Jr. scrip (or sculp.) 1794."

This note is a curiosity for its stupid errors. The profile was, of course, neither "a pen and ink sketch," a "miniature" or a "drawing," and there is not the least likelihood that Washington presented it to Captain Hartshorn.* It is what is technically known as a dry point etching and is printed on the back of a ten of diamonds playing card. I am saved from a minute description of the print by the impressions from the original copper plate which accompany this monograph.

As has often been said nothing can be claimed as unique that has emanated from the press, so, close upon the heels of this find, in the cabinet of the the Massachusetts Historical Society, in Boston, I was sent by C. W. Darling, of Utica, New York, a reproduction of a similar etching, which he had given to the Oneida Historical Society, with this inscription ;

"Gen. Washington, 1794. The original of this portraiture, presented by Gen. Darling, Corresponding Secretary of the Oneida Historical Society, was given by an artist named J. Hiller, Jr., in 1794 to Harriet Paine,† then a young lady of sixteen. At a reception the artist took from his pocket a package of playing cards and on the back of the King of Clubs, began this sketch of Washington."

The errors of this inscription are as amusing as those already noticed, both of which are only fair examples of the romances that hang around so many portraits of the *Capt. Hartshorn married Abigail Cleveland, aunt of young Joseph Hiller, and no doubt received the print from his nephew.

†The Cleveland and Paine families intermarried.

Father of his Country, which it has been my province and duty to correct and expose. From the two impressions of the Hiller etching of Washington I gleaned the information contained in my catalogue where the following description will be found on page 66.

“ 140 J. Hiller, Jr.

Oval height, 2. 9. Oval width, 1. 14.

This is an extremely close copy of the Wright etching, No. 138, but without a worked background. All the impressions that I know are printed on the backs of playing cards.”

A few months after the publication of my Grolier Club volume I received a communication from the Secretary of the Essex Institute, who wrote as follows :—

“ A friend of mine and a member of the Essex Institute, has in her possession two interesting profiles of Washington, etched in 1794, by Joseph Hiller, only son of Major Joseph Hiller of Salem. The etching may familiarly be called card photograph in size and very generally resembles the rare etching by Joseph Wright. The Essex Institute owns a very beautiful seal, cut in London for Major Hiller and showing in profile the head of Washington. The etching by his son, I am inclined to think, may have been made for the purpose of sending to London a representation for the use of the seal cutter, for the portrait cut upon the seal and the etching are nearly identical. The etching, of which two copies are known to exist, is now in the possession of a descendant of Major Hiller and I am writing to you at this time, not only to bring to your attention this, to me, interesting portrait of Washington, but also to inquire in behalf of its present owner, if the two copies in her possession may not have a commercial value that may warrant the sale of the same.”

Here then were two more original prints of the Hiller etching of Washington and what is yet more remarkable:

these two impressions were clearly what would be described, chalcographically, as two different states, the first and second. The lettering of the first state corresponded with that given in Hart 140, and of the second state, with the plate as it now exists. The differences are very slight, the only important change being the addition of "N 1", in the lower right corner of the margin. There are also dots or periods, ".", added after "Washington," "J", "Ju", and "1794"; and "Sculp<sup>t</sup>", is "Sculp". I had the pleasure of disposing of these prints and now am able to communicate additional information relative to the Joseph Hillers, father and son, furnishing some interesting data concerning this early Massachusetts engraver.

Joseph Hiller, Jr., was born in Salem, Mass., June 21, 1777, and was drowned August 22, 1795, being washed overboard from a vessel off the Cape of Good Hope, so that he was only in his seventeenth year when he essayed the copy of Wright's etching of Washington. He was the fourth child, and only son, of six children born to Major Joseph Hiller (1748-1814) and his wife Margaret Cleveland (1748-1804). His father was a revolutionary officer who led "a uniformed company from Salem, on the day of the Lexington fight. The uniform of this company was quite elaborate and fully vindicates the truthfulness of Col. Trumbull's painting. It consisted of a green coat, white waist-coat and breeches, black gaiters, cocked hat with three black feathers and ruffles."* He saw active service in August, 1778, in Rhode Island, where he commanded a company of volunteers from Salem.† In 1784, he was appointed by the General Court of Massachusetts and commissioned by Governor Hancock, to collect the custom revenues at the port of Salem, which appointment was confirmed by commission from President Washington, August 5, 1789, as first Collector of the Port of Salem under the government of the United States. This office Major Hiller held until August 12, 1802, when he was superseded by President Jefferson and there hangs in the Custom House at Salem, a portrait of him, painted from life, which was presented by his descendants. He is said to have been "the first American by birth who espoused the doctrines of Swedenborg." He was a Mason and admitted to Essex Lodge, January 25, 1780, elected Master, March 30, and re-elected under the new charter when the Lodge was re-established, July 5, 1791.* In early life Major Hiller was a silversmith† and jeweller‡ and was possessed of "great mechanical ingenuity."§ It was undoubtedly this last quality, with the taste that was naturally acquired from following the artistic trades of silversmith and jeweller, transmitted from father to son, that led the youth of seventeen to attempt the engraving of the Washington profile and doubtless the father, from his trade experience, was able to instruct his son in the mechanical part of his work, for in the early days every practical silversmith and jeweller understood something of chasing and engraving which were very important branches of their business. This plate, too, it will be remembered, is "dry-point etching"—engraved with the point and not bitten in with acid, and as far as is known is the only attempt of Joseph Hiller, Jr., at engraving. The supposition that this etching was primarily made, to be sent to England, for the use of the gem engraver, employed by Major Hiller, to cut in stone, at a cost of £20,¶ the seal, with the profile head of Washington, now in the cabinet of the Essex Institute, seems very reasonable. The profiles are as much alike as an intaglio cut in hard stone could be to a flat one engraved on soft copper, in addition to which they both face in the same direction, which would indicate copying without reversing, the easiest method for an ordinary copyist, and which reverses the head when impressed in wax. Nor is it too much a stretch of the imagination to conceive that the Wright etching copied by young Hiller, was the identical impression that belonged to Benjamin Goodhue and which was the subject of my former communication to the Essex Institute. Stranger coincidences than this have happened and this is not at all an unreasonable supposition while it may be a hopeless one to follow to a satisfactory determination.

This story would be interesting enough if it ended here, but it does not and its sequel is quite remarkable. In May, 1906, I learned that the original copper plate of the Hiller etching of Washington was in existence. That it had been found lying upon a beam in the attic of an old house located on Turner street, in Salem, and although somewhat corroded, yet yielded a fair impression. Thus the past is brought up to the present and through the courtesy of its owner, Mr. Albert I. Whipple, the plate has been secured to illustrate this monograph, so that one hundred and thirteen years after its execution, restrike impressions from the original plate are published in the birthplace of the youthful engraver as a fitting memorial of him. Of original prints the four mentioned in the text are the only ones so far known.

At Boston, March 22, 1778.

I received yours of 22 Feb<sup>r</sup> y<sup>e</sup> 6th Instant. I thank you for them. Have let the Counciel of this State see y<sup>rs</sup> of 6th. Some Friends to our cause we are contending for, are surprised to hear of the wants of the Army for Bread & Meat in a plentyfull cuntry. Am Sorry the good Gen<sup>l</sup> did not order the Commissary's, or a force, to have Bread & Meat taken and Brought into the Army so thay should not complain for the want of the above, and every Farmer that did not send or deliver it, it should be Taken away from him. It would be the case if the Army was in this State, with out Money, if the Treasure was out. You mentioned a Return from our friend Carlton in Brewer's reg<sup>t</sup> is distressing. Some Thousands Sutes of Cloathes compleat, has bin sent to Peeks Kill. There many Lay am informed, a Rotten when so many brave men are Fresing. Ware is the Fault. We Judge it must be to the Southard. Lt. Col. Colman of Wiggelsworth reg<sup>t</sup> told me Two days past, the 300 Sutes compleat he sent of got to Peeks Kill in 17 days, from this, and there stoped, for what reason I cant conceive, but suppose partly the defect is the want of money, to give the Waggener, as I am very Sensible is the want hear, but hope the [Mint?] will not stop Till all Departments is well Supply'd and every Soilder pay'd monthly.

The high prise of provisions in the Southern States, I hope will Influence Congres to have an embargo Layed on, that no provisions shall be shiped to any part of the West Indies. If it had bin Layed on Sep<sup>t</sup> 1775 to this day, we should have bin in much happier Surcumstances, tho some marchants has got money, Like the North Carolinio man by exchanging to make his barrell of pork net £90. The March<sup>ts</sup> hear has on the whole suffred greatly, and will in a year or Two, Fail. Privertering Turns out much the Same this year as Trade.

The Council has ordered Gen<sup>l</sup> Hancock to have a return of the Militia & of there Armes &c. This State has emported about 7,000 Armes &c. About 5,000 Armes, 30 ton of Lead, 1000 Gunlocks with a proporsion of Flints & powder, has bin delivered out to each Town in proporsion to the Tax thay pay to the State. Am in hopes the Militia is in better Order for the Above Articales then ever thay ware. In Store about 50 Tons Lead & Ball, 2,000 Armes, 1000 Gunlocks, emported powder 260 barrills. The Forts round the coast Supplyd. At Mr Sam<sup>l</sup> Phillips mill, ready to prove 5,000<sup>lb</sup>. Col<sup>o</sup> Burbank a few days past proved 15<sup>lb</sup> of <sup>sd</sup> Phillips [and] sayes it is better then any emported. Is gon up to Andover to prove y<sup>e</sup> above. Hope it will Turn out as good. Mr. Phillips has Taken a great deal of paines [and] has got to such perfection that he judges he can produce as good as any in the world. At the State Mill Maj<sup>r</sup>. Crane told me he was on the Same plan with Mr Phillips. He Told me he had 6 tons ready to prove. When Col<sup>o</sup> Burbank comes from Andover he is to go & prove it. The mill at Springfield makes also good. The quanity there I dont no. Meterels we have plenty, making dayly.

What this State Expects is a Brig from France, with Cloathing &c, every day, and a Brig in about 2 months. Two Large Ships that went with Masts is to Bring Salt & Blankets. A Brig gon to Bilboa for Cordage & Cloathing. A Brig, a Ship, to South Carolinio & France.

Schedule of what is ordered in Most of y<sup>e</sup> above Vesels, viz:—3 point Blanketts, of a good quality. Blue Cloath, White Cloath, Red Cloath, propootioned 7/8 Blue, 1/16 White, 1/16 Red, for Soilders Cloath. Linnen for shirts for d<sup>o</sup> fr<sup>o</sup> 30 to 50 fols. Hose of White yarn. Shose Large & Strong. Felt hats Large. White Flannell (Thin) for Linings. Do Swanskin. Russia Sheetting 30

Ells a p<sup>s</sup> cost in London 42 to 45. Brown or some other kind of your own fabrick in Stead to make Rifle Shirts or Frocks principally. Boxes of Sheet Tin a third X. Sewing thread of all Collors, & for Linnen. Russia Duck. Raven's do. Ticklingburg. Sail Twine. Lead. Armes. Powder.

Three State arm'd Brigs out, Ordered on ye Coast of Spain [and] portugal. Hope thay will send in some prizes with goods. The above Schedule is what is ordered for the State and am in hopes we shall have success in the Armed Brigs & the other adventures.

Provisions, Beef, & pork provided for only the State Troopes &c. (Bread only from day to day. It must come from the State of York, Connecticut & the upper part of this State.)

You mentioned the difficulty of giting Seaman to man the Vessels to Bring provisions up the Bay for the Army. States Privertering marchant Vessels, what few is employed, wages is up to 15 to 20 £ p<sup>r</sup> m<sup>o</sup>. Insurance 70 to 75 p<sup>r</sup> Ct. You may see we are distressed for men to Serve the publick, as well as other States. Congress sent a resolve with a Warrent on the Loan Office, to the Board of War to emport Flouer from Virginia, to hire or purchas Vessels. Not one can be hired as yet. Two only Bought. Got men, and then thay Left, and now [am] after men. Am fearful shall not be Able to git them, for the risk is so great to Virginia, men dont incline to go at any Wages. The order came to Late. All the Small Vessells was gone. This adventure should have bin gone into early in the fall past, when the risk was not half as much. The Ship that had a number of our men from Halifax bound to York, was Brot into Marblehead some Time past has given the Small pox to a number of the Inhabitants of each Town thay went Throu. This Town had so many Taken down that the Gen<sup>l</sup> Court was Obliag'd to Brake up, and are to Meet the first day of April next. This Town has gon into anoculation. In my Last I mention'd the Towns are call'd on for there quota of men. The Committes from each Town has reported, that each Town is endeavoring to git there quota of men and are determed to git them. The Town of Salem has Taxed a number of the Inhabitants, the Am<sup>o</sup> is £3,000, to git y<sup>e</sup> men wanted for said Town, and hope each Town will git them Soon. This State sends Two reg<sup>t</sup> to the State of Road Island. I suppose Millet Bro<sup>t</sup> some orders for men for the State of New York. I believe this State will due every thing that Layes in there power, to see the Army filled, & to assist the other States. I wish Congres had order'd that this State Should send men to the State of Road Island for what Conneticut was to send to s<sup>d</sup> Road Island, & Conneticut, to send to the State of New York the Same number thay was to send to the State of Road Island, which would save Time & expence. Suppose each in the Like danger. Maj<sup>r</sup>. Wadesworth, formerly Gen<sup>l</sup> Wards A. D. C. proposed a plan for the Town or Towns to Turn out Volinters to make up a Company to March to the Army with out pay, to be found provission & a Waggon to cary there Baggage, and stay in Camp Till Jan<sup>y</sup>. next, and due duty as good Soilderes. You may see by one of the Late Boston papers a supposed plan of the Same. The resolve you enclosed me, in ye Last of 2<sup>d</sup> March of much the same plan for Horsman. I have sent it to Salem this Morning. Council received one by Millet yesterday. I have acquainted a number of Gent<sup>m</sup> hear of it. Thay begin to Talk away that it is a good plan. I wish thay will due as well as Talk. I hope something will be dun as the Members of Court when thay adjourn'd sayed thay would due all that Layed in there power to have there Towns git there men and all members was desired to atend at the First Meeting. Nothing to be dun Till the Army is settled.

A Fleet for Burgoine & men is at Cape Cod. A flag of Truse has bin up and gone back, to know if thay will Land the provissions thay have in the Fleet for the Army. I hope thay will so the Farmers may have Beef &c Left on there hands, for our Farmers are as cruel as Death in there Demands on the Inhabitants, for wood is at 6 to 9£ p<sup>r</sup> Cord, Beef is 6 to 2-3 p<sup>r</sup> <sup>lb</sup> Indian Corn 24. Hope we shall at Last weather the Storm, and we to have a free Cours by warter, which will soon Loar these high prises. You will see by this our State. I wish it was better.

April 4, 1778.

You must know

I suppose he will give you Account how your dece'd Farther has disposed of his Estate. I hope it will be agreeable to you. Salem, July 12 1778.

D<sup>r</sup> Sir

At my return from Boston received yours 26th. You will see my reasons by the within of my not Accepting. I hope it will satisfy you, & all others, and as for the Bills of Lading &c, shall be emeaditly sent to Boston or go myself as soon as I know who is appointed. Shall call on M<sup>r</sup>

Hopkins to know this night. I am very sorry our Kinsman Gardner should meet with any disappointment. I hope it wont put a check on his Spirits, as he had a good Spur in the other Voyage, if he had made good improvement. You mention'd a Villainous Scheme to raise the price of provisions wanted for the Army. It an't only with you. Other parts is all most as bad. A scheme of some packers of Beef [was] this way; in the fall of the year thay barrill'd it, and before they was to deliver it, drawed of ye pickel & put in fresh warter so it might soak into it, and by that meanes make it whol out its wieght, and as soon as the hot weather Seats in it is Stinking. Our State was cheat'd in this way Last year, which we could not Account for till we was informed of this Villainous practis and while I was at the war office, it offen Occurred. To my mind the saying, our cuntry men are cheates, this war has fullfilled. You have inclosed your wifes Letter. Nothing remarable hear. We are wating to know the faite of the British Army. Am verry Sorry the Great State of Philedelphia Should be so Backward in Turning out, so thay might have part of y<sup>e</sup> honnour of Taking M<sup>r</sup> Clinton, but am in fear he will Slip away.

NEWBURYPORT, MASS.

The Sawyer's Hill burying ground was set aside for burial purposes by a grant from the town of Newbury, dated Dec. 18, 1695. It was then one acre in extent. On Mar. 25, 1707-8, the parish voted to enclose the burying place with a stone wall, but the next year it was voted that the committee should "fence in the burying place either with board fence or stone wall," at their discretion. The ground is now within the limits of Newburyport, and is nearly three miles from the city, on the road leading to Curson's mill. The oldest stone marks the grave of Mrs. Hannah Bartlett, who died May 1, 1705. She was the grandmother of Josiah Bartlett, the signer of the Declaration of Independence.

EDMUND LEWIS OF LYNN, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

Edmund Lewis, who came to this country and first settled in Watertown, is said to have come from Lynn Regis (King's Lynn), England, but there is no record of him or any of his family on the church registers there. Alonzo Lewis, in his history of Lynn (second edition), states that he was a brother of William Lewis, who was at Roxbury in 1630, and was a founder of Lancaster, Mass., in 1653, who descended from a good Welsh family, with a pedigree running back centuries. (Some Welsh pedigrees run back to Noah.) Where Lewis obtained his information is not at my command. I have searched the records of this colony and visited England and Wales, used the library of the British Museum, and consulted the records of Somerset House and Fetter Lane, London, without success. Alonzo Lewis has his pedigree upon his monument in the Western Burying Ground, Lynn, running from William, through Isaac, his son, who died childless. In point of fact, Alonzo Lewis was descended from Isaac, son of John, of Charlestown and Malden. If Alonzo Lewis had stated his Welsh pedigree, giving the name of the Welsh ancestor, or the place from which he emigrated, it might have been traced.

There is no authoritative connection of any of the Lewis immigrants to New England, during the 17th century, with any Welsh or English family. Without knowing his English home, it is impossible to trace a Welshman. It was not until the middle of the 16th century that the prominent families of Wales begun to adopt the surname as used by the English. They then took the name of the father, and William ap Lewis became William Lewis;

Lewis ap Edward became Lewis Edwards; Thomas ap Richard became Thomas Prichard or Richards; John ap Robert became John Probert or Roberts; John ab Owen became John Bowen; John ap Evan became Bevan or Evans; John ap Harry became Parry,—and so on through the whole list.

The name of Lewis was as popular in Wales as Washington and Franklin in this country. It was adopted as the English form for Llewellyn, who was the last ruling prince in Wales, and was killed in 1282, and whose head hung over the entrance to the Tower of London, after having been paraded through the streets as a warning to others who might rebel. Nearly every Welsh family had a son Lewis, and when the surname was adopted there were many Lewises.

But this did not take place universally at any given time, for at the beginning of the 19th century not half the people had surnames, and to-day in some of the northern parts of Wales the old ap or ab is used between father and child. Edmund might have been the first to adopt the surname, and his father may have been Lewis ap John, or some other name, therefore it is impossible to trace the ancestry in Wales without knowing the place of nativity and parents names, and even then it cannot be done with certainty.

All coats of arms are without authority for the same reasons. Ion Lewis, son of Alonzo, states in his biographical sketch of his father, that they descended from the family in Glamorgan. I have been to Cardiff and Greenmeadow, and inspected the family chart of Henry Lewis, M. P., who is the head of the family at this time, and find no connection. I have also consulted the printed records of the family and find none. The parish registers do not run back earlier than 1725, therefore all recorded connection is impossible. When a member of the family emigrated from England his record was discontinued, and no entry was made even if the family knew where the individual had gone.

That the Lewises came from a good family cannot be doubted. Thomas Lewis, who was the first, came to Saco in 1628, and was an educated man of means, or he could not have obtained the grant which he did. Philip Lewis of Greenland (Portsmouth), 1650, was a relative of — Tucker, of Cleaves and Tucker. William Lewis of Roxbury was probably one of the young sons of a numerous family, where the eldest son inherited the estates, and the other sons had to look elsewhere. He was of an adventurous spirit, and came out when a mere youth, and returned to England where he may have interested his brothers in the colony, and possibly Edmund and John were brothers of his, as the similarity of names in the families will be noticed. After William's children were driven out of Lancaster (1675-6) by the Indians, Isaac is found fighting the Indians with John, the son of Edmund, and he received £3. 2. 0. from Lynn. (Bodge's Indian Wars, p. 371.) Later he is found in Malden, Chelsea, and Charlestown, where John's descendants are living.

There is no doubt but that Edmund was brought up by the sea. He had a good estate at Watertown, but it was away from the water, and he went to Lynn, where he found an ideal place, and bought forty acres directly upon the seashore. He may have been a sailor, as in his inventory appears a "cutlas," a weapon used in battle, at close quarters, on vessels. He may have bought his land of John Wood, as his lands are called "Wood end fields," and that end of the town was called "Wood end." In his will he mentions John and Thomas as having some property, and is solicitous for the welfare of the five youngest children, of whom only James and Nathaniel are recorded at Watertown, so the others were born in Lynn, and no record made. Whether he had five children younger than John, as Savage thinks, or five younger than Thomas, is uncertain. Of James I find no certain trace. Nathaniel, with his brother Joseph, sailed away to New London, Conn., in 1666.

It has been said that Benjamin Lewis of Stratford, Conn., who went from New Haven, Conn., in 1670, as one of the founders of Wallingford, and later sold out to Dr. John Hall and returned to Stratford, was a son of Edmund. Did he, like Nathaniel and Joseph, sail away, and not finding a place at New London, continue until he reached New Haven and Stratford? Did he later, like Edmund, leave the inland town for the seashore? The habits of youth are hard to eradicate. Another connection may be found in the fact that the names of his children are almost identical with those of Edmund, and some of John's, viz.: John, Mary, James, Edmund, Joseph, Hannah, Martha, Benjamin and Eunice. John had John, Hannah, and Benjamin. This is not positive proof, but is strong circumstantial evidence in support of the claim that Benjamin was the youngest child of Edmund. I do not include him, for want of absolute proof.

But with Joseph it is quite different, for I consider the written proof made over two hundred years ago identifying Nathaniel with Lynn, and Joseph with Nathaniel at Swansea, together with the presence there of their brother Thomas, as superior to the uninvestigated theory of Mr. Deane, who, in his History of Scituate, assumes that they were children of George Lewis of Barnstable. Other writers have repeated his statement, save Savage, who rejects it, and Amos Otis, who, in his Barnstable Families, throws it out entirely, and states that neither town, colony, or church records confirm the statement.

On April 10, 1634, Edmund Lewis, aged 33 years, his wife Mary, aged 32, son John, aged 3, and son Thomas, aged  $\frac{3}{4}$  years, embarked in the Elizabeth, William Andrews, master, at Ipswich, England. He settled at Watertown, Mass., and shared in the first great division of lands. His homestead was on what is now the east side of Lexington street. He was granted land July 25, 1636, lot 26, 30 acres in the 1st division; Feb. 28, 1636-7, lot 82, 5 acres; June 16, 1637, lot 61, 5 acres; April 9, 1638, 6 acres. In the book of possessions he held in lands: (1) A Homestall of 6 acres. (2) One acre of meddow in Rockmeddow. (3) Thirty acres of upland being a great Divident in the 1st Division, the 25th Lott. (4) Five acres of Plowland in the further Plaine and the 91 lott. (5) Five acres of meddow in the remote meddows & the 61 lott. (6) A farme of hundred acres of upland. (7) One acre of remote meddow by estimation. He was admitted a freeman May 24, 1636, and was elected a selectman for the year 1638. Oct. 14, 1638, he was one of a committee chosen "To lay out the farmes as they were ordered, near the Dedham line." (Barker's Watertown, p. 4.) Alonzo Lewis' History of Lynn says he removed to Lynn in 1639. Bond's Genealogies of Watertown says he removed after 1642. He buried a child there Nov. 6, 1642; Savage says 1643. He had lived near the sea, and when he removed to Lynn he settled in the eastern part of the town, on what is now Lewis street. He died in January, 1650. His wife died Sept. 7, 1658.

In his will, made the 13, 11th month, 1650, he mentions five young children. The date of birth of two of them is not recorded, and the name of one of them is not known. His will, on file in Essex County Probate Records, Vol. 1, f. 119, is as follows :

6. JOSEPH.

There is no record of the 6th and 7th children, who were alive at the time he made his will, and who must have been born after 1642, in Lynn.

2 John Lewis, yeoman, innholder, lieutenant, captain, and deacon, was born in England in 1631. He came into possession of his father's lands in Wood end fields, 40 acres fronting on the sea and through which Lewis street now passes. At that time the eastern end of Lynn was called "Wood end," and the western end, "Breed's end," and the locality back of where Samuel Graves settled was called "Graves end." For years these names appeared in the description of lands given in deeds.

On the 19, 5mo., 1669, John Lewis of Lynn, yeoman, and wife Hannah, sold to Ralph King for £23, four acres of upland in Lynn bounded on William King, said Lewis, and south by the sea. (Essex Deeds, Vol. 3, f. 95.) In 1699 he married for his second wife the widow of this Ralph King. Nov. 9, 1699, he deeded his lands to his two sons, John and Thomas, as follows:—John Lewis, sen. of Lynn, yeoman, for £160, to his two sons, John and Thomas, yeomen, in equal halves "all my housing and lands in Lynn, viz: a dwelling house where I formerly lived, a barn, with 40 acres tillage at Wood End fields, Also a parcel of Salt marsh in Rumney Marsh 12 acres." (Essex Deeds, Vol. 3. f. 191.) A division of the above was made, June 5, 1708, "the dividing line to begin at a flat rock about a pole & a half from the back side of John Lewis Jr. house and so running easterly on a straight line to a flat rock in the field where it has been formerly broke up, so from thence South East straight to a stake with a heap of stones, thence East to a stake with a heap of stones by the ditch that parts said lands formerly of Ezekiel Needham's, and all lands South of said line to be John's, and all lands North, with the house and barn, till it comes to the brook that runs from Collins' fresh meadow, to be Thomas, John to have all lands North of said brook, it to be the bound betwixt them in that place. As to the Marsh land, John to have the Easterly half, and Thomas to have West-erly half." (Essex Deeds, Vol. 21, f. 50.)

John Lewis was a lieutenant under Capt. Henchman in King Philip's War, and received £1. 14. 3. Aug. 20, 1675. He was granted land at Souhegan West, now Amherst, N. H., for his services, which his grandson, Edmund, secured in 1728. (Bodge's King Philip's War, p. 422.) He was paid £1. 16. 0. June 24, 1676, for services in Capt. Nick Manning's Co. (N. E. Hist. Gen. Register, Vol. 42, p. 95.) He was made a freeman, April 18, 1691, and was then called "lieutenant." (N. E. Hist. Gen. Register, Vol. 5, p. 352.) He was elected a deacon in the church at a town meeting held January 8, 1692:—"That Lieut. Lewis & Lieut. Fuller should sit at table." He kept a tavern in the eastern part of Saugus, known as the "Blue Anchor," probably being the successor of his father in law, Capt. Thomas Marshall, who died in 1683. This inn was later kept by his son Thomas (9) and grandson John (41), and is mentioned by travellers of that day.*

Madam Knight in her Diary also mentions this tavern.

He died in 1710, at the age of 79 years. His will† is as follows:—

I John Lewis Sr. of Lynn being of sound understanding & memory thro the goodness of God, considering the frailty of human nature in general and my own age in particular, not knowing how soon it may please God to take me out of this transitory life and, being desirous of making allotment of my outward estate and prevent any differences which might otherwise arise after my death between my wife and my children, do make this my last Will and Testament as followeth [commits his soul to God, and his body to the earth]. And as for that outward estate which God in his goodness hath lent unto me, I do dispose of it as hereafter is expressed. For as much as I have formerly done for my children what I judge meet, and sufficient and am now desirous according to my duty and ability to provide for y<sup>e</sup> comfortable livelyhood and subsistance of my now wife after my decease, if it be the pleasure of God that she outlive me, I do therefore give unto my said wife, Sarah Lewis, and my Will is that she shall receive, have and enjoy to her own absolute use and disposal, my whole Estate not formerly by me other-

He married, second, Sept. 2, 1699, widow Elizabeth King, relict of Ralph King of Swampscott, and daughter of Capt. Richard and Jane (Talmage) Walker. (Essex Inst. Hist. Colls., Vol. 16, p. 77.) 3. Thomas Lewis, born in England in 1633, removed from Lynn to Northampton in 1661-1662, where he had a home lot of four acres, which he sold to Matthew Clesson in 1667. He was chosen to assist in building a mill, 27, 6 mo., 1666. He removed from there to Swansea, where, at a town meeting held Dec. 1, 1669, "Thomas Lewis was admitted inhabitant and member of this township, and to have a twelve acre lot where any two of the Com'te for admission of inhabitants shall approve of his settlement." At a town meeting held Feb. 9, 1670, it was ordered that all lots and divisions of land thereafter be granted according to the three-fold rank, by the selectmen. First rank, three acres; second rank, two acres; and third rank, one. Thomas Lewis was in the second rank. He was elected a selectman, May 21, 1672. He is mentioned at Bristol, R. I., as early as 1681, and was taxed at Mendon, Mass., in 1691, 1692 and 1693. He was elected a selectman, May 1, 1693, for the year, but declined to serve. The following is taken from the Annals of Mendon, p. 129, where it is used as a model for the peaceful settlement of a land dispute.

"Know all men by these Presents that I Thomas Lewis of Bristol, Doe Constitute and Appoint my well beloved Capt. Josiah Chapin of Mendon, In my Roome and Stead for to Joyne with sergent Abraham Staples of Mendon aforesaid to Devid A percell of medow that belonged to John Parris's Lot in Mendon, Now Eaqually belonging to me the said Lewis and ye Above sd Staples, and doe by these presents bind myself my heyers, Executors, administrators and Assigns, to stand to their Agreement about ye devision of sd meadow, and after the decision is made to cause the same to be recoiled, as Witness my hand this 9th of January, 1695-6. Thomas Lewis [Seal].”

In 1696, he was called of Mendon, with wife Hannah. In 1692, Thomas Lewis of Bristol, R. I., sold land to Capt. John Andrews. He also sold land there in 1701. In the Book of Possessions of Swansea his lands are recorded on page 9, and in the various proceedings of the town his name appears in regard to lands. On Dec. 23, 1704, he, with his wife Hannah, executed a deed of gift for good will and affection, of the “north part of my dwelling house in Bristol,” to his daughter, Hepzebah Lewis. (Bristol Co. Deeds, Vol. 4, p. 319.)

The will of Thomas Lewis of Bristol, recorded in Bristol Co. Probate Records, Vol. 2, f. 257: “In the name of God, Amen, I Thomas Lewis of Bristol in ye County of Bristol in New England, being aged and very Infirmitie, and not knowing when or how soon I may be Removed out of a Chaingable world, to prevent Jarrs & Contentions after my Decease do make constitute and ordaine this to be my last Will & Testament in manner and form following; that is to say, I commend my Soul into ye hands of God and body to ye earth to be decently buried at the Discrefion of my friends, and as to my temporal estate which it hath pleased God of his mercy to lend me, I give bequeath and bestow in the following manner, Viz: After my ffuneral Charges and Just Debts are payed and sattisfyed by my Executrix hereafter mentioned, I give and bequeath unto my aged and beloved wife all my whole estate both Reall and personal after my decease During her natural Life with full power and Authority by Virtue of these presents to make sale of ye whole my Two acre lott in Bristol with the Dwelling house thereon except what I have before given by deed of Gift to my Daughter Hepzebah or any part or parsell of my said lott to such person or persons who shall appear to purchass the same hereby Impowering of my said wife Hannah Lewis to make, sign, seal and fully to Execute a good and sufficient Deed and Legall Conveyance of the said two acre lott or any part or parcell thereof so sold as aforesaid for her necessary & Comfort-

D. 1708. Thomas Lewis [Seal]"

Proved July 6, 1709. Presented and sworn to by Hannah Lewis.

The widow Hannah Lewis sold, April 22, 1710, to Nath<sup>l</sup> Byfield, "one half of the two acre lot of land where ye dwelling house now stands being the eastern most half of those two acre lot with ye barn and house thereon" bounded East on High St, South on Queen St. West by land of said Thomas Lewis, being the other half, and northerly by land of Nath<sup>l</sup> Byfield. (Bristol Co. Deeds, Vol. 6, f. 174.)

Thomas Lewis married, Nov. 11, 1659, Hannah, daughter of Edward and Joan Baker. They both died at Bristol, R. I., he dying April 26, 1709, aged about 76 years, and his widow following him in January, 1717.

5. Nathaniel Lewis was born at Watertown, 25th, 6 m., 1639. Caulkins' History of New London, p. 296, says, "Nathaniel and Joseph Lewis are names that appear on the rate list of 1667, as partners in estate. They were transient residents." They removed to Swansea and became inhabitants.

At a town meeting, Dec. 1, 1669, "Nathaniel Lewis is admitted townsman, and is to have a 12 acre lot where it may be Judged Convenient." He was of the 3d rank Feb. 7, 1670. In the Book of Possessions his lands are recorded on page 107, except his lot No. 85 in the sheep pasture, alias Towoset Neck, which is recorded by a mistake with his brother Joseph's lands on page 53. He married Mary —, and died Oct. 13, 1683.

Children of Nathaniel and Mary:

30. NATHANIEL, b. July 17, 1673; d. Aug. 20, 1676.
31. MARY, b. Dec. 4, 1677, at Lynn; m., June 10, 1693, John Cole, jr., in Swansea, and had born there: (1) Lewis, b. Oct. 23, 1694; (2) Joanna, b. Feby. 20, 1696-7; (3) Nathan, b. Mar. 20, 1703.

6. Joseph Lewis. There is no record of his birth. His father died in 1650, and in 1658 his mother was taken away, and John, his eldest brother, did not marry until the next year (17 June, 1759), so that his childhood was not very propitious and early in life he had to start to build his own fortune. Being used to the water, with his brother

Nathaniel, he sailed along the coast, and was at New London, Conn., on Dec. 2, 1667, where they were transient residents and taxed £2. 3s. 9d. for the minister's rate. (New London, Ct., Records.) He removed to Swansea with his brothers, Thomas and Nathaniel, and became an inhabitant, and was granted land in the third rank, Feb. 7, 1670. At town meeting 9th, 12 mo., 1671, he was elected to assist the committee to "lay out the lands recently purchased at Metapoisett." His lands are recorded in the Book of Possessions on pages 53 and 54, and with them are recorded part of the lands of his brother Nathaniel (5) on page 53 by a mistake made at that time. The following certificate is self-explanatory.

Office of Town Clerk and Treasurer.

Swansea, Mass., Aug. 3, 1906.

"Nathaniel Lewis his land in the Sheep pasture alis Towoset Neck by a mistake were Recorded in page 53 with his Brother Joseph's Lands."

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the record as it appears on page 107 of the original "Proprietors Records" in the town of Swansea.

Henry O. Wood, Town Clerk.

[Seal of the Town of Swansea.]

There has been considerable discussion as to who were the parents of this Joseph Lewis. Mr. Deane's Scituate and Mr. Shepherd in the N. E. Hist. Gen. Register state that he was a son of George of Barnstable. There appears to be no foundation for such statement, as George had no son by that name, as is shown by Otis' Barnstable Families. There is ample evidence that Nathaniel was from Lynn, and the above is evidence that his brother Joseph was with him.

There is a tradition that Joseph Lewis was the first white man slain in King Philip's War. He was killed at Swansea, June 24, 1675. (Bodge's King Philip's War, p. 463.) A list of the slain reported by the clerk of the town at the time is: Joseph Lewis, Robert Jones, John Jones,* Nehemiah Allen, William Cohun, John Salisbury,

*The Joneses were relatives of Mrs. Joseph Lewis. The deaths probably occurred in the order named.

William Salisbury, John Hall. (Plymouth Colonial Records.)

"As the inhabitants of Swansea were returning from public worship, a number of Indians who lay in ambuscade, fired upon them, killed one of their company and wounded another. They next intercepted and killed two men, who were sent for a surgeon. The same night they entered the town of Swansea and murdered six men." (Hannah Adams' N. E. History, p. 120.)

"In the afternoon of June 24, 1675, being a fast day at Swansea, people were coming from Public Worship the Indians attacked them, killed one and wounded others, and killed two men who were going for a Surgeon, beset a house in another part of the town and murdered 6 more." (Hutchinson's History of Mass., Vol. 1, page 261.)

Joseph Lewis married Mary Jones, June 13, 1671. (Swansea Records.) She was the daughter of Robert and Anne (Bibble) Jones of Hull. Anne was the daughter of John and Sibyll Bibble of Malden. After the massacre Mary returned to Malden to live with her grandmother.* Mary, the widow of Joseph, married, Jan. 11, 1677, at Malden, Obadiah Jenkins. He died in 1720, and his sons Joel and Obadiah gave bond April 1, 1720, and were appointed administrators of his estate. His wife Mary must have died before that time, as she had no share in his estate. Their children were: (1) Joel, (2) Mary, (3) Annabel, (4) Lydia, (5) Sarah, m. — Taylor; (6) Anna, m. Benj. Teal; (7) Obadiah, m. Mary Grover.

*The Will of John Bibble (N. E. Hist. Gen. Register, Vol. 9, p. 306-7) mentions son in law Robert Jones of Hull, daughter Annie and wife Sibyll, and calls himself "of Maldon being now of Hull," July 23, 1653. Ann Bibble was a petitioner for a minister to be settled at Malden, Oct. 28, 1651, so she must have married Robert Jones between that day and July 1, 1653, when her father made his will. Sybil Bibble, widow, married Miles Nutt, and on Oct. 30, 1674, became the wife of John Doolittle of Malden, where she lived and died Sept. 23, 1690, aged about 82 years. THE EARLY CHURCH PLATE OF SALEM.

BY JOHN H. BUCK.

With the exception of a flagon (1767), at the First Church, a flagon (1773), and two mugs (1772), at the North Church, made in London, the silver vessels belonging to the churches in Salem are by colonial silversmiths. The earliest pieces are those marked I D with a fleur-de-lis below, in a heart-shaped shield, undoubtedly the work of Jeremiah Dummer, silversmith, of Boston (1645-1718), an apprentice of John Hull, the mint master, who "served his country faithfully in several Publick Stations." (Obituary in the "Boston News Letter," 2 June, 1718.) Plate with this mark is to be found in many churches in New England, from the First Church, New Haven, Conn., to the First Church, Berwick, Me., and the South Parish Church, Portsmouth, N. H. Next in order are the pieces marked I C, fleur-de-lis below, heart-shaped shield, probably by John Cony (1655-1722), also of Boston, with whom Apollos Rivoire, father of the patriot, served part of his time as an apprentice. If John Edwards (1687-1743) of Boston, made the baptismal bason presented to the North Church by Benjamin Pickman in 1772, it proves how unsafe a guide inscriptions are as to the date of vessels, which were frequently presented for sacred uses after years of domestic service. (Edwards: see "Curwin Papers;" "Records of the Church in Brattle Square;" Weeden's Economic History of New England, p. 474.)

John Burt (1690-1745), maker of the loving cup bequeathed to Harvard College by "Col. Samuel Brown of Salem, 1731," and his son Benjamin (1729-1804), both of Boston, are also represented, the latter making the two mugs for the Tabernacle Church, given four years after his death. Others of the old Boston silversmiths are: Daniel Boyer, member of the Old South Church and Sergeant of the Artillery Co., 1762, whose mother was Mary Ann Johonnot; Z. Brigden, born in Charlestown, 1734, member of the West Church, d. 1787; D. Parker, who advertised a sale of his tools and wares, 1763; Samuel Minot (1732-1818), one of the Protestors in 1774; and Paul Revere (1735-1818), the patriot, who is said to have "frequently exchanged work" with Abijah Northey, a goldsmith of Salem. (Boston Transcript, Jan. 20, 1900.)

It is interesting to be able to identify the mark D. T. on the alms basons of the East Church, from Dr. Bentley's Diary, as that of David Tyler. He appears as a goldsmith in the Boston Directories of 1796-8.

Of the early part of the last century are vessels by Churchill & Treadwell (1815); J. B. Jones (1824); and Baldwin & Jones (1820), all of Boston. Jabez Baldwin, of the latter firm, learnt his trade in Salem, possibly of William Cleveland (grandfather of the Ex-president), who, with Jedediah Baldwin, brother of Jabez, and Rufus and Henry Farnum, were fellow-apprentices of a Scotchman named Harland, of Norwich, Conn. Cleveland came to Salem soon after his marriage in 1793, and on his returning to Norwich, was succeeded by Jabez Baldwin, who, after the close of the War of 1812, established the well-known firm of Baldwin & Jones of Boston. Baldwin was the victim of a robbery which caused a sensation in Salem and vicinity. (See Salem Gazette, Oct. 29, 1805; Dec. 6, 1805; April 21, 1807.) The Farnums also set up in business in Boston.

The silverware marked Moulton is by William Moulton, one of the family of silversmiths of Newburyport. (See Currier's History of Newburyport.) Local craftsmen are represented by John Andrew at the sign of the "Golden Cup," near Long Lane Wharf, 1769 (see Annals of Salem, Felt), and Stevens and Lakeman (1825), Eben K. Lakeman appearing in the Salem Directory as late as 1850.

The communion vessels as a rule are plain and substantial, without ornamentation, with the exception of engraved coats of arms, or cartouches to hold the inscriptions, and many have been in use as domestic utensils. Some have unfortunately been made over into new forms, either to meet the changes of fashion or from becoming too dilapidated for use. In some instances, to the credit of those in charge (as in the case of plate belonging to the First and Saint Peter's churches), a record of the donors of the old vessels has been engraved upon the new.

1774. About y<sup>e</sup> middle of May I was in Boston and Gov<sup>r</sup> H. then lived at his seat in Milton. There was so great fears at that time (real or pretended) that y<sup>e</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> w<sup>d</sup> be assassinated if he attempted to come to Boston that his friends dissuaded him from it. Once in particular he was met upon y<sup>e</sup> road to Boston and desired to return, for y<sup>e</sup> people were so incensed y<sup>t</sup> nothing c<sup>d</sup> withstand y<sup>r</sup> violence. He was persuaded to return where he lived till he sailed for England. Addresses were presented to him at Milton from various quarters procured at y<sup>e</sup> importunity and by y<sup>e</sup> artifice of his friends, and forwarded by y<sup>e</sup> inconsideration, and impetuosity of others who did not wish success to his political opinions, but wished to engage him to assert himself against y<sup>e</sup> tyrannical and oppressive acts of y<sup>e</sup> Brittish Legislature; and tho' y<sup>e</sup> language and stile of the Addresses were far from being agreeable to many gent<sup>m</sup> w<sup>o</sup> signed y<sup>m</sup> yet, for y<sup>e</sup> reason I have ment<sup>d</sup> & because y<sup>r</sup> was not time to form new ones, & because y<sup>v</sup> esteemed those better y<sup>n</sup> none, they were persuaded to sign y<sup>m</sup> — these reasons prevailed on many, to my certain knowledge. It was suspected (and with great justice) that those gent<sup>m</sup> w<sup>o</sup> promoted the Addresses & draughted y<sup>m</sup> had direct views to y<sup>r</sup> own sinister purposes & private Emolum<sup>t</sup>.

*William Wetmore, the son of Jeremiah and Abigail (Butler) Wetmore, was born Oct. 30, 1749, in Middletown, Conn.; married, 1st, Nov. 5, 1776, Catherine, daughter of William Pyncheon of Salem, Mass.; married, 2d, Oct. 8, 1782, Sally, daughter of Samuel Waldo, of Falmouth (Portland), Me.; and died in November, 1830. He was graduated at Harvard College, 1770, and settled in Salem where he practiced law and represented the town at the General Court in 1777. He removed to Boston in 1785 and was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for a number of years, and also one of the founders of the Massachusetts Historical Society. He was very successful in his profession from the active practice of which he retired in 1792.

This was most certainly the Case with several y<sup>e</sup> came within my observat<sup>n</sup>.

PUBLIC HOUSES IN SALEM.

A LETTER FROM REV. JOHN HIGGINSON TO THE

To the Honoured Magistrates now present at the County Court at Salem, June 25, 1678.

Being credibly informed that there are at this time belonging to Salem about 14 Ordinaries & publick drinking Howses, some of them licensed others of them vnlicensed, (viz. 1 m<sup>r</sup> Gidny, 2 m<sup>r</sup> King, 3 Capt More, 4 Ellin Hollinwood, 5 Jo: Procter, 6 Nath. Ingersoll, 7 Darling, 8 m<sup>r</sup> Croad, 9 Will: Lake, 10 Edw: Bridges, 11 Gilbert Taply, 12 Fra: Collins, 13 Goodie Kippin, 14 Ruben Guppa, & that there are 4 more y<sup>t</sup> now at this time desire & endeavour to get approbation & license, viz. 15 John King, 16 John Peaf, 17 Sam: Eburn, 18 John Clifford.

And being fet in this place by God & men as a watchman by office, I dare not but discharge my duty in giving warning agst y<sup>e</sup> sin of Drunkennes & y<sup>e</sup> excessiue number of drinking howses in this place; & having libertie by Law (as title Common Liberties) vpon consideration of many things in y<sup>e</sup> fear of God, I find it to be my duty at this juncture of time to present this information to y<sup>e</sup> Honoured County Court: That though the continuance of these & y<sup>e</sup> adding of more may be a gratifying of such as are too much given to drinking & not so well affected to Sobriety Law & good order, yet I believe it is a very great grievance to y<sup>e</sup> generalltie of y<sup>e</sup> church members freemen & Sober people of Salem, as well as to my selfe & I doubt not if there be need upon enquiry your Worships would finde it so) not seeing how such a multitude of drinking howses can possibly stand with y<sup>e</sup> law made in 75 for a Reformation of excessive drinking vnder y<sup>e</sup> title of provoking Evils, when it is well known y<sup>t</sup> till within this few years 2 ordinaries were judged sufficient for Salem, & y<sup>t</sup> divers of these haue set up since y<sup>e</sup> making of y<sup>e</sup> Law in 75 & most of them are known to be frequented by town dwellers, to y<sup>e</sup> great impoverishing of y<sup>e</sup> town, y<sup>e</sup> encreas of tipling drinking & company keeping the dishonor of God & further provoking of his wrath.

Therefore it is humbly propounded to y<sup>e</sup> serious consideration of the Honoured County Court, whether by y<sup>e</sup> Exercise of & Emprovement of your wisdom Integrity authority & zeal for God, against sin (according to the forementioned Law & as an act of reall reformation of such a provoking evill) whether there may not be a putting down of all such publick howses as are found vpon mature deliberation not to be absolutely necessary for y<sup>e</sup> entertainment of travailers & strangers, & a reducing them to some few w<sup>ch</sup> may be sufficient for y<sup>t</sup> end, as in former times.

And in particular y<sup>t</sup> you would pleas not to License Edw : Bridges, He being not approved by y<sup>e</sup> most of y<sup>e</sup> Sober people of this place, either for his Sobriety, or for his Fidelity to Law & good order.

Your humble & affectionate

to your Viz y<sup>t</sup> [you] can maintain your station eary on your Trade & Injoy y<sup>e</sup> fruits of y<sup>r</sup> owne Labour & yett out of an Ouer plus y<sup>t</sup> God has Granted you w<sup>ch</sup> you can spare y<sup>t</sup> which may Reach to y<sup>e</sup> Supply of y<sup>e</sup> nesesetys of y<sup>r</sup> ffath<sup>r</sup> family & y<sup>r</sup> owne flesh & blood: then Indeed I propound to you y<sup>e</sup> Scripture Example of Joseph & y<sup>e</sup> N: Eng<sup>d</sup>: Example of Anderson for y<sup>r</sup> Imitation

You may doe it Ether by sending from where y<sup>e</sup> are, or ordering from London iff y<sup>e</sup> haue an Estate their or may procure it to be done by y<sup>e</sup> East India Comp<sup>a</sup> whome you Serue as I haue heard of Some Examples of that Kind & you know we have a cordial & tryed ffreind y<sup>r</sup> Vnkle whitefeild y<sup>t</sup> will [be] Glad to be Employed in Such a Service as Res<sup>ing</sup> & transmitting y<sup>e</sup> Same vnto vs I am not Ignorant of y<sup>e</sup> many difficulties & casualties in y<sup>e</sup> way by Reason of y<sup>e</sup> distance of time & place & Interuening accidents &c in all w<sup>ch</sup> we must Submite to y<sup>e</sup> Prouidence of God wating vpon in y<sup>e</sup> way of our Duty if he will please to prosper Such a designe because I am Aincient if you Should Joyne M<sup>r</sup> Noyce wth your Brother Jn<sup>o</sup> to distribute to y<sup>e</sup> Rest In case I Should be dead you may doe well, I would pray you to Send a Particular Rememb<sup>r</sup> to y<sup>r</sup> Moth<sup>r</sup> her fformer husband left her 30<sup>u</sup> a year during her Life (which) I Should haue had ffor my time but God took it away by y<sup>e</sup> Great fire at Boston. She hath been a Good wife to me & a good mother to my Children & been a prudent & Industrious manager of our ffamaly affaires. Methinks I would not have you Stay much Longer where you are but when you can come of wth honour & Safly & wth y<sup>e</sup> Leauē & Good will of y<sup>e</sup> East India Comp<sup>a</sup>, y<sup>t</sup> you would Returne Either to Old or N England to Spend y<sup>e</sup> Rest of y<sup>r</sup> days among y<sup>r</sup> ffreinds & Relations diuers desire it here Especially y<sup>r</sup> 2 Succesfiue chamber ffellows, M<sup>r</sup>. ## THE SEACOAST DEFENCES OF ESSEX COUNTY IN 1776.

A Report from the Committee who were ordered to Newbury

The Committee appointed to view the Sea Coasts from Boston to Newbury Port and examine their State of Defence &c. having attended that Buifness, report as follows.

There are two Forts erected on the Point of Land in Salem Harbour No. 1 & No. 2 or old Fort, No. 1 contains 10 ambozeurs has 2 twelve pounders 2 nine pounders with three small pieces, fit for use, which with the Cannon in No. 2 or old Fort we judge sufficient as these Forts are overlooked by another Fort which is now erecting on an eminence not far distant from those already mentioned, which commands Beverly & Salem Harbour in a very advantageous manner, in this Fort there is one 12 pounder only. This Fort we must own, does Credit to the gent<sup>n</sup> of the Town of Salem, and with the addition of some heavy pieces and ordinance stores would enable them to make no dispicable Figure in the common Defence.

The Situation and Importance of the Harbour of Marblehead with the Strength & Beauty of their Works, are equally conspicuous, they have 18 pps. of Artilery in their Fort and is in one of their Batteries viz 2 of 24. 2 of 18. 2 of 14. 4 of 12 the remainder nines Sixes & fours, four of the four pounders are expected to go on Board the armed Schooner Tyrannicide and a part of the 14 & 12 pounders answer better for an ornament to the Fort than for use, besides there they have a six gun Battery well situated & very advantageous for the Defence of their Sea Coast but destitute of Guns, they are also erecting a five gun Battery at a Place called Hewetts Head and propose erecting another on the Back Part of the Town. These Fortifications We judge Sufficient if well manned & Supplied with Artillery & ordinance Stores for the Defence of the Harbour, unless it should be judged best to take Possession of a Height of ground called Noggshead, which would be of advantage to Salem & Beverly equally with Marblehead.

At Beverly they have erected a Sand Bank Battery laid out for five Ambozeers in which they have two borrowed field Pieces. This Battery appeared to the Committee of no great Importance. The Situation of a Seven Gun Battery, nearly opposite Salem Fort, in Woodbury's Point and a four Gun Battery erecting on Thorndicks Point together with a five Gun Battery erected at Barnetts Point and a three Gun Battery at West Beach are of such a nature as to demand an immediate attention for the Preservation & Security of the Sea Coast.

They have a Part of Coll Glover's Regiment stationed here, have one 18 pounder & two 12 pounders borrowed of Gen<sup>l</sup> Ward and four small borrowed field Pieces of little Consequence, they have 150 w<sup>t</sup> of Powder belonging to the Town with 200 w sent there by a Committee.

At Manchester, they have no Works except a small one near Glass Head, as their men are out in the Service of the Continent and they naked & Defenceless they petition for two or three Cannon and a Sea Coast Company, being obliged to keep several watchers and lying more than six mile on the Sea Coast.

The Importance of the Harbor of Gloucester is so great as in the judgment of your Committee to demand a very early and serious Consideration. They have a Fort erected called Fort Anne with ten Ambozeers in which they have 12 <sup>liders</sup> 4 <sup>liders</sup> with three nine pounders, havey comb'd and not fit for use if possible to be avoided. No. 2 is a four gun Battery in which is one 9 <sup>lider</sup> that is not good and one 6 Pounder fit for use.

No. 4 is a four Gun Battery lying on a neck of Land between No 1 & No 2 and not of so much Importance as No 1 which is a five Gun Battery & has one 2 pounder & 1 nine pounder. Besides these there is a Battery erected which has no Guns but in which a Field Piece or two might be of great Service, they have about 240 men 100

Shot for the large Cannon and one thousand w<sup>t</sup> of Powder for the whole.

The Town of Newberry Port is fortified in such a manner as to do Honour to the gentlemen concerned. The Noble Exertions that have been made by that Town for the Defence of such an important Part of the Colony demands the most grateful Returns from every Well Wisher to American Liberty, they have ten nine pounders 8 sixes and two fours belonging to the Town, but have no Guns nor ordinance Stores belonging to the Colony and have been able to procure but very little of the latter at their own, and a very great Expense.

The above being a State of Facts your Committee beg leave to report as their opinion, that Cape Ann, be immediately supplied with thirty two and ——— Pounders with ammunition and ordinance Stores suitable therefor and that some Measures be adopted for the speedy filling up the Sea Coast Companies stationed there in the Room of those who have enlisted or shall enlist on Board any of the Continental or Colonian armed Vessells.

We beg Leave also to observe it as our opinion, that some heavy Pieces be sent to Salem, Marblehead & Newbury Port, that the State of Manchester be taken into Consideration, that a Sea Coast Company & a Matross Company be raised at Newbury Port, and that they be supplied at Newbury Port with ordinance Stores & ammunition proper for the Cannon already there and such other as shall be sent there that Beverly also be supplied with a proper Proportion of Cannon & ordinance Stores

If the question were asked, "what was the first published work written in New England, who wrote it, and where?" very few persons could answer correctly. Many would venture, as a guess, Bradford's "History of the Plymouth Plantation," but this was not written until some ten years after the settlement of Plymouth and was not printed until 1856. If we except Robert Cushman's "Plymouth Sermon," published in London, 1622,—which, although it is well worthy to be classed as literature, was not in book form—the honor of publishing the first book written in New England seems to belong to Francis Higginson of Salem, whose volume "New England's Plantation" was published in London in 1630. Although the manuscript of the little volume was not originally written for publication, there is in this glowing description of the New World "a delicate felicity of expression and a quiet imaginative picturesqueness," as Moses Coit Tyler characterizes it, which gives it a unique and worthy place in American literature. It went through three editions in a single year, and although it has now lost that timeliness which made it popular when so many in old England were wondering what New England was like, yet one finds it most readable and delightful still.

From the time of this earliest literary production onward, Salem has been prolific of authors and is worthy to rank with Cambridge and Concord as a cradle of American literature. Many of the successors of Mr. Higginson in the pulpit of the first church have been men of literary talent as well as pulpit power. Roger Williams and Hugh Peters did not make their contributions to literature until after leaving Salem, but Nicholas Noyes, of witchcraft fame, was a noted versifier in his day, after the style of the school of Donne and Herbert, and his verses, conceits and epitaphs in rhyme were much admired and sought after. The broad-minded and beloved John Higginson, a son and successor of Francis, also possessed true and substantial gifts as an author. Professor Tyler writes of his "massiveness of meaning, seer-like earnestness of tone and quaint dictions as of dead sages and saints" in his "attestations to Mather's Magnalia" and has warm praise for his Election Sermon on "The cause of God and his people in New England."

But although the literary instinct came with the Cambridge scholars and thoughtful Puritans across the sea, and the tender plant of literature was kept alive here through all the hardships of wilderness life, it was not until after the Revolution that it blossomed and began to bear fruit which had the unmistakable flavor of genuine literature, slowly but surely ripening. In the period comprising the last decade of the eighteenth century and the first decade of the nineteenth, Nathaniel Bowditch, the most brilliant mathematician and astronomer of earlier American science, completed his "American Practical Navigator" and began his famous translation of Laplace's "Mechanique Celeste;" Dr. William Bentley, the genial and progressive parson, linguist and observer, was writing his pithy comments on current events; Timothy Pickering, Salem's distinguished Revolutionary General and representative on Washington's cabinet, composed his admirable state papers and addresses; Joseph Story was cultivating in verse and public address that literary talent which afterward made his Supreme Court decisions so notable; Dr. Edward Augustus Holyoke, the centenarian, the first man who received the Medical degree from Harvard College, was making his noteworthy contributions to the medical journals, and John Pickering was carrying on those linguistic studies which made him one of the leading scholars of his time and which issued in his Greek Lexicon, his works on the Indian languages and other books of great scientific value.

This outburst of literary activity in Salem in the opening years of the nineteenth century in the direction of scientific and professional literature was followed by an almost continuous literary productiveness along many divergent lines. Fiction shyly lifted its head above the rocky soil in Nathaniel Hawthorne's "Fanshawe," published in 1826. Poetry, in purest raiment, appeared about ten years later, when verses began to come out in the papers by that true child of the Spirit, Jones Very. Salem gave birth to William H. Prescott, but before his boyhood was past the talented author of the "Conquest of Mexico" left his native place to shed the lustre of his fame over Boston. Historical work of high character was done by Joseph Felt, Charles W. Upham, Daniel Appleton White, and many others. Samuel Johnson and Josiah Willard Gibbs maintained the high standard of oriental scholarship set by Dr. Bentley and John Pickering, while the Worcesters, father and son, Thomas Brazer, Thomas Barnard, James Flint, and Elias Cornelius, kept up the best literary traditions of the Salem pulpit.

Salem has been the birthplace, or the home, for a longer or shorter period, of many authors distinguished in all fields of literature. Of poets there were born here Charles T. Brooks, the eminent translator of Schiller and author of many poems of grace and delicacy (among them a fine tribute to the city of his boyhood), and William Wetmore Story, who inherited that talent for poetry which his distinguished father, Chief Justice Story, possessed. Justice Story, published a poem entitled "The Power of Solitude," but afterward secured all the copies he could find of this his only published poem and consigned them to the flames. His son, the sculptor, has been kinder in leaving to posterity "The Poet's Portfolio" and other volumes of thoughtful and musical verse. Salem was the birthplace, too, of Samuel Johnson who was the author, not only of "Oriental Religions" and of several essays of great literary charm, but of a number of hymns of the first rank, such as the well known hymn, "Father! in thy mysterious presence kneeling." Together with his friend and biographer, Samuel Longfellow, he made the collection of hymns that Theodore Parker used to call the "Book of Sams."

From the time that Anne Bradstreet, the "Tenth Muse lately come to America," first of American poets, struck the rock from which issued the stream of poesy, the waters ceased not until the wilderness of the New World blossomed as the rose. One name stands out as the poet par excellence of Salem, Jones Very, the mystic, friend of Emerson, whose essays and poems Charles Eliot Norton well described as "the work of an exquisite spirit." Never was a poet who had a deeper conviction of Divine inspiration. As James Freeman Clark said of him, "he came and went, spoke or was silent, as the Spirit directed him." Jones Very's "To the Humming Bird," "The Old Road," "To the Painted Columbine," "The Voice of God," "The New World," and "Beauty," breathe a love of God and nature, an insight, an artless purity and serenity that insures them a permanent place in American literature. They touch the deep things of life. It is well for Salem that the house where he lived, by will of his sister Lydia, is to be kept as a memorial of the gifted singer and of his talented brother and sisters. No one who loves the woods and hills and shores of old Salem can well forget the gentle poet who has made them the more beautiful by the touch of his own pure and elevated spirit.

Salem has been the harbor and home, for a time, of many beside those already mentioned, whose names are familiar in American Literature. Edwin P. Whipple resided in Salem for a time, as librarian of the Salem Athenaeum. Elizabeth Peabody lived in the old Grimshawe house on Charter Street, Maria S. Cummins, the author of that famous novel, "The Lamplighter," was born and passed her early life in Salem. Dr. George B. Cheever, while pastor of the Howard Street Church, began here his literary career by publishing the famous pamphlet, "Deacon Giles' Distillery," destined to outlast his later and more elaborate work. James Hoppin, O. B. Frothingham, Rufus Choate, George B. Loring, "D. R. Castleton," Henry W. Foote, Alpheus S. Packard, and scores of other writers are associated with Salem, either by birth or residence and helped to keep alive the literary spirit in the old city by the sea.

But the bright particular star in the firmament of Salem literature, whose name, even if she possessed no other, would make the literary fame of Salem secure, was Nathaniel Hawthorne. He was, like Jones Very, the son of the typical Salemite, a ship-master. The blood of a Salem ancestry going back to the very beginning of the town flowed through his veins. The very atmosphere and flavor of Salem is in all his work. It is difficult, to be sure, as one looks at the unattractive house of his birth and the streets of his boyhood, to realize how this exquisite orchid of literary genius could have sprung from this unimaginative environment and antecedents. But genius is unaccountable. It knows no laws. Or, at least, if it has laws, they are too subtle and refined for complete analysis. It springs up here or there in the spot of God's appointing and no man knows its genesis or can fathom its nature. Hawthorne was of Salem; his roots went deep into her soil; he breathed her air and drank in her life and interpreted her to herself. And yet the flower of his genius opened far above her narrow streets and confined conceptions in an atmosphere of eternal truth and light. And Salem did not wholly understand him. Nor did he bear with her as a son should bear with his mother.

Hawthorne felt, even when he resented it, the strength of Salem's hold upon him. He knew that he was bound up in the bundle of life with her, and wherever he went Salem went with him, coloring all his imaginations, his ideas, his thoughts. His first great novel grew out of Salem soil and in his last he returned to Salem for his scene. But if Hawthorne owed much to Salem, Salem owes still more to Hawthorne. What, if he did hold himself aloof from his fellow-citizens and, once at least, dipped his pen in vitriol when he wrote of Salem,—has he not done more than enough for his native city to atone for this? Has he not traced with that wizard power of his the evolution of her main street? Has he not immortalized her town pump? Has he not made forever famous her penny shops? Can one sit in one of Salem's old gardens at twilight without thinking of that immortal garden of the House of Seven Gables? The spell of the genius of this man is over the old town like that of a magic wand, held by a hand that death has not paralyzed; while through him Salem has become famed and familiar wherever American literature is known.

Many of your Friends wishes you was clear of the publick, and thay Judge you might due as well here for Intrest. I due not no what your income is so I dont give y<sup>o</sup> my opinion. As for the campaine to Road Island it would Take more than the compas of a letter. This I can say, never was greater Spirit seen in America for the expidision, and greater disappointment, when M<sup>r</sup> Frenchman Left us on a Island in the Lurch, all of us mad that there Stay only was 8 hours, and one third part of there Ships to Lay before the Town, and Two or three more to cover the Landing of Some Troops on Brintens point, was I as informed by some General officers & others that was a Judge, that one day after thay halled before the Town & Troops Landed on s<sup>d</sup> point, would have compleated the Busness, and I beleve it might have bin don. We went up y<sup>e</sup> hill, and down again, and then got home to Salem Safe. Farewell following French man. If I can find a good oppertunity, shall send you my old money to exchange. I and severel others desired to have come to Philedelphia, but the Burning of part of Bedford,* will prevent us, for fear thay should Take a Turn hear after M<sup>r</sup> French man.—If you have Time Cap<sup>t</sup> Mason & I would have you employ a good man to sell our old Schooner as she Lays for the most she will fetch and bring the neat proceeds with you, and will pay you for expence & Trouble. All Friends well and hope to See you soon. yours of 28th came to my hand by M<sup>r</sup> Alcott from Maj<sup>r</sup> Biglow, and he inform<sup>d</sup> me of his disappointment as well as you. It did not, and I was obliged to pay the said Am<sup>o</sup>.—and we could have had the money for s<sup>d</sup> goods at the delivery from privet men, and no goods have bin sold hear cheaper. Many have bin sold dearer, and many of the goods he had could have had 300 to 1500 ¢ ct. none under 1100 ¢ ct. so you may see the publick has bin better sarved then privet men, and I have suffer'd by my Intrest in the affare. I have offen wondred that delays in our publick affares was so many, when I have it from one that has bin, and acquainted the rulers that he wantd money to pay for Cloathing for the Army, so he may have the Army Cloath'd in Season to be detained allmost a month's Time, I say fare well publick busness. D<sup>r</sup> Sir Received yours pr. Millet and the enclosed three hundred doll<sup>rs</sup> for John Gardner J<sup>r</sup>. Shall send it to him the First opportunity. We are Glad to hear of you & cing safe and so well Accomedated, and so well supplied with Bread. In this State on the Sea Coast the Inhabbittants will not have any to eat. A Bisket is sold for 6<sup>d</sup>. What shall we doo for Bread, as the State of York has Answered a Letter from Council, say they can't spare any. The General Court has appointed a Committee to go on from State to State Till thay git as far as Meryaland, to ingage Flour &c. If we are not releived many will not have Bread to eat. The cry is great allready. We was in hopes to have had some by the way of Priverteering. None come as yet. No prizes only from the Pelgrim & Franklin. The dead money has made the poor in great distrest, and Many Marchants intirely Stopped as all there money is dead. One more such Move will intirely destroy all Faith for the money. Moll<sup>s</sup>. for Live Money sold at 45<sup>s</sup>/ p<sup>r</sup> Gall<sup>o</sup> for dead 60<sup>s</sup>/. The Country men for provisions to the poor in proportion as Moll<sup>s</sup>. This State has Ordered a Tax of one Million pound, for the Two Million dollers order'd by Congres & the Remainder for States use, to be paid in the dead Money for the 20th May next. The reason of this Large Tax so sudden was to help the poor & midling people, so thay may not give away one third of the whole to have it exchanged, & to save what thay can spare for said Tax. Marchants of this Town has 7/8 of there Money of this dead Sort. It is supposed some Gentlemen 20 Miles westward of us knew of this, & put of all the dead money. The whole money from M<sup>r</sup>. Bigelow to the Owners of the Montgomery's was paid in that Sort. I became bound for M<sup>r</sup>. Bigelow, to one of the Owner's that he would pay in a month for £1500, before he would Let the goods go, and was Obligated to pay it in current money. When I was repaid I had for Serving the public Sheets of April. So much for serving the publick for nothing. I Remember the saying of your Good Farther—no Faith in paper money. The Makers of Money sent it to there servants to purchas goods and thay knew it was to be out of circulation in a few months. It would be called by some Jockeing. If any Alteration in State Affairs you will much oblige me to Let me know, by post or any other way. It may be of Service to me. I am Sorry the Tea came to a bad Market. No opportunity as yet to send y<sup>r</sup> wine. Shall not Fail of sending it if any good Opportunity serves. You will see the prise current of goods: &c. as p<sup>r</sup> other side. All Freinds well. As for Newes hear nothing more than you see in the Boston papers, my wife joins me in kind Affection to you, wife & John.

Dr Sir,

Yesterday at Salem received yours of 21 Feb<sup>r</sup>, and the inclosed which I delevered. All Freinds is very well, and are glad to hear of you &c. being well. Am sorry you mentioned John being inoculated for it gives pain to our good mother for fear he will not due well. Hope you will soon Acquaint us of his recovery. The Secret great good news I hope will soon arrive, if Some Thing dont, to put a Stop to the Farmers extorsion. I beleive the poor of the Sea ports, in case of the enemys appearing thay would not Turn out. You will see by the prise current the reason of the poors complaint. Privertering has by Bad conduct Turned out Badly. The Brig Harreden & Benson, has Taken 3 Valuable prises and sent them for Martinico & are retaking. The Ship Black prince no Accot of. I am glad to hear you have a prospect of geting mine & Masons money exchanged. Stoping the money has bin one means of the great rise of provisions, for the poor would offer 10 to 25  $\text{p}^r$  Ct. to the Farmers for provision to git of the dead money. The marchants with us had 7/8 to 4/8 of that sort. If congres had put on a Tax of 30 million the sea ports would have gladly paid it for this reason. Some got all Live money thay could, & put of the dead and now make a marchandize of it, at 10 to 25  $\text{p}^r$  Ct. If congres should strike dead one more emission, I beleve no Faith for money any Longer this way. To hear the poor in the Markets Dam the makers of it, thay would not Take Such a step again. Write me if any News should Turn up so I may Take care of my self & Freinds. Pray Let me know by any way you may have.

N. B. prise current. Beef, 5/ Mutton, 5 to 6/ pork 5 to 6/ Indian Meal 20 to 25 dolrs. Flour none to be bought (Last sold 27 to 30 £) Sugar 50 to 60 p<sup>r</sup> Ct. Moll<sup>s</sup> 50 to 54/. N. Salem April 6 1779

D<sup>r</sup> Sir

Received yours yesterday p<sup>r</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Hendley with the inclosed note, and he has promised me he would discharge it soon. I am Glad you have exchanged Mason and mine money so far. We are Glad to hear of John so far well advanced in the Small pox. We are Longing for the great News to Transpire for we are in great distress hear for the want of Bread. Many Famely's has none to eat. Our wicked Farmers has the modesty under a good grace to Ask for Flour the small prise of £45 to 50 p<sup>r</sup> Ct. Veal 6/ 7/ p lb. Beef 5/ to 6/ p lb. Many hear that had a good Liveing must be reduced to Beggery on Acco<sup>t</sup> of the above prises. The Sea port Inhabitants are all most discouraged with the Loss of all most all of their marchant Vessells &c and those that arrives at the southern ports are stop-[ped] and wont Let them have corn &c. Privertering is in much the same way. The ship Bunker hill gone away. The Montgomery & the Pickering coming home in the Latt. of 36 N. in a very hard gale of wind the Montgomery Sprange a Leak, & the next day thay was obliaged to Leave her, and she is gone, and all the men saved by the pickering, and all their prises retaken, and the ship Black prince no Acc<sup>o</sup> of, so you may see what a fine Winters work I shall make. Am fearfull we shall not be able to send the priverters out for the want of Bread. I have about £5000 of the dead money by me. It is to be exchanged by a resolve of congres from the 1st June to Augst. Many are fearfull it wont be exchanged. I Took it from the Gent<sup>m</sup> that was employed by congres, and in a few months after made dead. The expences of Living Obliage me to have current money for it. If I had a safe oppertunity I would Send it to you, to have it exchanged after the 1st of June next, as you have the Bank by you. I am fearfull there wont come a Long any hear in season to exchange it. Please to Let me know by the First oppertunity. Y<sup>r</sup> Affectioned Freind, etc.

At Boston, April 17 [1779]

This is to Informe you of the succes of our State Vessels & the Ships Warren, Ranger & Queen of France. The Hazard took a 18 Gun Brig priverteer after a Bloody ingagement. The Brig Tyranicide took a Brig of 14 Guns, also after a Bloody ingagement. Thease Two Captors I beleve it may be called as Great a Battel by Sea as ever was in any war. Great Honour to the Commanders of Boath Sides is due. The Ships Warren &c. has Taken a privetur of 8 Guns 45 men, the 6th Instant. The 7th do fell in with a Fleet, of 9 Saile under Convoy of a 20 Gun Ship 150 men Bound from York to George, Took her and 6 others. The report per the Warren which arrived Last night say thay are worth £130,000 Sterling. The perticulers I suppose will be at Congres soon. He Lost them Last Monday in a fog on St. George's Bank. All the continental Ships was out before the Warren Arived. If thay would Keep out I make no doubt that thay will due good, as this Capture will I hope give them Spirrit. Nothing New sence my Last. Knew his lands at Stage Point. Remembers Claimt. in Possession, opposite to the centre of the Town, on the other side River, divided into different Lots. Thinks it consisted of about 40 acres. One spot was particularly valuable. It was a place where ships hauled down to repair. That near the river was useful for drying fish, the other Land was chiefly grass, very convenient to the Town. A very valuable Tract. Thinks this would fairly have been worth from 50 to 60 Ster. per acre. That next the water was richly, worth £60 Ster. per acre.

Remembers him in Possession of Mening's Farm. Was valuable. It was good land, well situated. Vals. the farm at £10 Ster. per acre, but speaks doubtfully.

As to Charlton Lands. Wits. had himself Lands in a Town near Charlton which he sold at 30 Ster. per acre. They had small Improvements upon them. Such Lands were obliged to pay Taxes, tho. unimproved, but it was not usual to Escheat them. Used to be sold for non payment of Taxes.

His house at Salem was well furnished.

Remembers he had Rights in the great Pasture of Salem. Thinks them worth £9 Sterl. each.

PETER FRY ESQ.:

Knew Claimt. Have heard him mentioned as one attached to Brit. Govrmt. & that he had left Newbury on acct. of the Troubles of the Times.

Case JOSEPH HOOPER, Marblehead. As soon as the restraining act passed he Signed a Protest & induced others to sign it, contrary to the Resolutions of the Town of Marblehead, where he resided. He followed the business of a Rope maker & was a Mercht. His house was called Tory Hall from his known adherence to Govt. He was obliged to go armed for some time before he left America. The troops left Marblehead a short time before the battle of Lexington. He continually lived with the officers of the British Army.

After the battle of Lexington, Capt. Bishop in the Lively Ship of War, blocked up the Port & he was chosen by the Town as a friend to Govt. to mediate for them.

After this he was constantly attacked & insulted and frequently put in danger of his life. Then attempts were made to burn his house in the night. He killed one man in the attempt.

On the 1st of May 1775 a Town meeting was held at Marblehead & all adherent to the British cause, were ordered to renounce their alligance, he was the only person in the Town who refused to make a temporary submission.

They immediately drew up a form of recantation, which a friend of his who was of the committee, brought to him

& told him he must sign before the Friday following or his life would be the forfeit. He then thought it prudent to get off, which he did in a Ship of his fathers to Bilboa in Spain & lay 42 nights on some dried Fish. He came from Spain to England, since which time he has never been to America.

Certificates from Gen. Gage & Judge Brown to Loyalty to Property from others, but they cannot be received.

SIR WM. PEPPERELL. Believes Mr. Hooper to be a Loyalist & has understood that he has suffered considerably by his Loyalty. He supposed him to be a person of Property, when he was in America & still thinks he was. His Father was a very steady Loyalist.

The Claimant called again to speak to Property says he built a House, bought the land in 1772 of Benj. Matson Esq., says he thinks the Land cost him before he began to build, twixt £3 & 400 Stg. The building of the House cost him £2500 Stg. The out Buildings, fence, &c., cost him £500. It was just finished before the troubles. He values the whole at £3500 & is concious it must have cost him more. Plate, Furniture, Wine, liquors, Linnen, in his opinion were worth at least £500.

A large Rope walk he swears was his own property. He values this with tools & implements at £2500, it cost him that & he could had £2000 from a person to take him into Partnership. The Rope Walk he hears is not destroyed. He thinks it would let for £70 or £80 pr. annum. His father is not in Possession. He says all his Property at Marblehead is confiscated as will appear by an affidavit of his Fathers which was produced & read. His Father was active last August. It appears by the same that the Property was the sons. He had a right in two other Rope Walks. He left all his Papers at Salem. He values this Interest at £300.

A House & Land at Newbury Port, his title to this is in right of his Wife, it belonged to her. It belonged to her Father & Mother, it has been valued at £1875, there is a mortgage on it for £600. He values his loss to him at £1000. Does not know that it is Confiscated his Wife is in Possession.

150 acres Lands at Marblehead, these he would only have at his Father's death. He has a Deed of Gift for them. He values them at £500.

For Hemp Cordage English & West Indian goods. He swears he had those in his Rope Walk to the value of £400. Furniture, Plate, &c., &c., in his Father in Law's house £189.

He had two Negroes which are liberated by the Congress. Succeeded to two by his Father in Law, one lives with his Wife & one is dead.

He had 5 Horses, two he drove in his Phaeton, one he rode. These cost him £20 each & 2 cart horses. He values them at £50.

He had two carriages which he values at £80.

Upon a ballance there was £400 due him in America.

He claims Loss of business in his Rope Walk for 9 years at £700 pr. an. Says he made that by his business. He realized about £400 pr. an., by his trade in the Fisheries, &c.

The Interest of his estate for 9 years at £300 pr. an. He formerly had £100 pr. an. from the Treasury from 1777. He is reduced by Mr. Wilmot & Coke to £80.

SAM'L CURWEN, Esq. Has Known Mr. Hooper since his infancy. Mr. Curwen lived at Salem only 4 miles from Marblehead, says the Hooper family were always esteemed Loyal. He does not himself know any acts of their Loyalty. He knows he carried on the Rope business & always considered him as the owner of the Rope Walk. He cannot put any value on his Rope Walk or on his House. He knows the woman he married. Believes her Father is a Loyalist he does not know what fortune she had, believes her father had failed some years before. Mr. C— came away before Mr. Hooper. He has heard nothing of Mr. Hoopers conduct by which he displeased the Rebels. Says Mr. Coombs could give the Board some information, but he is at present out of town. Says he knows nothing more of Mr. Hoopers case & Mr. Monro is desired to inform Mr. Hooper that the Board will require further evidence to Corroborate Mr. Hoopers testimony.

PETER FRYE, Esq. He lived at Salem. Hooper lived at Marblehead. He was a rope maker. He believes the Rope Walk was his own. It was made at a very considerable expense. He thinks it might have let for £100 pr. an. He thinks he could have bought & built the whole for £2000 Lawful. He always considered both Father & Son as very Loyal subjects. Knows his House, it was one of the best houses in Town. It would have cost him £2500 S. with the out buildings. He was at great expense in clearing the ground for the foundation. If he had been to buy the house he would have thought £2000 a high price for it. At auction he thinks it would have sold for £1500, it was well furnished. He thinks that the furniture, plate, &c., might be worth £350. He has heard that Mr. Hooper had a concern in another Rope Walk. He has rode around the House at Newbury Port. Mr. Hooper got it by his Wife. He thinks it might be worth £7 or 800. He Knows Mr. H. had Negroes, but does not know the number. He had two or three Carriages. Being asked as to the price of Carriage Horses, he says £10 is a high price. He says that he might make £500 pr. an. of his Rope Walk, sometimes more. He does not know if Mr. Hoopers Property is confiscated & doubts if the prescription Laws prevents persons who are attainted from inheriting property. Says he never knew of Property coming by a man's wife being confiscated when she remained in this Country. This goes to the Estate at Newbury Port & the principle which he lays down as to Inheritance applies to the estate in reversion to him at his fathers death.

The real Estate was then unsold, but 3 Commrs. had been appointed to take an acct. of Charges upon all Claimant's Estate. Letter says there would be probably little surplus. Claimant says he owed about £550 Ster., of £70 of which was due in London.

1-5 of a Farm commonly called Bootman's Farm. The whole farm consisted of 60 acres with 1-5 of the Stock. The farm had belonged to his wife. Claimt. & his Wife Conveyed this to Isaac Mansfield Jany., 1773, in order that he might reconvey the Premises to Claimant. This was the way by which married Women made Conveyances answering the purpose of a Fine.

Produces Deed from Claimant & Wife to Isaac Mansfield, dated Jany. 9, 1773. Isaac Mansfield Conveyed the Premises to Claimant immediately after the former Deed was recorded but Claimt. has not this Deed at present.

Claimant & his Wife's Brors. & Sisters used to let this & the whole produce was a clear £120 lawful Mon. amongst the five. It came to his Wife as her Share on the Death of an Elder Brother.

Produces Copy of Will of his Wife's Father, Joseph Sweet, dated 1744, devising to his Son, Joseph, a farm consisting 65 acres, with buildings, stock, utensils, &c. Joseph Sweet, the Son, was in possession & died intestate without Children. 1-5 came to Claimt.'s Wife.

Claimant now resides at City of St. Johns, New Brunswick.

PETER FRY, Wits:

Knew Claimant. Certainly a Loyalist, uniformly so. Knew he had a house at Marblehead. Remembers his building it. In 1777 there was an Execution on a Judgement against Claimant and an order to appraise this house, & set off part in satisfaction of this Debt. It was then appraised & Witness was one of the Commrs. who appraised it, but cannot perfectly recollect what it was appraised at. According to his present Judgement would vote it at £500 Ster.

Claimt. had rendered himself obnoxious & Wits. does not think it probable that he should gain any benefit, from the Lease granted by Commrs. to his nephew.

Knew Claimt.'s Wife. Remembers her Brother Joseph. Died without Children. There were Cow Commonages in the Lands near Marblehead. Thinks them worth about £12 Ster. each.

Knew that he had Negroes. Wits. thinks that those Negroes only were liberated who would take up arms. Does not remember any general act for liberating.

His furniture was tolerably good. Cannot form any exact Judgement. Thinks it likely he might have had to the amount in his Inventory.

REVD. MR. WEEKS:

Knew Claimt. He was certainly a Loyalist. Knew his house at Marblehead. Remembers him in Possession of it. Remembers he had a Store. Remembers Claimant's Wife, Sarah Sweet.

He always did his duty like a Loyal subject & therefore he was treated more severely. He staid at Marblehead near a year & left Boston at the Evacuation.

He came to England in April, 1777 & applied to the Treasury who gave him £30 pr. an., which was Confirmed by Messrs. Wilmot & Coke & he still receives it. He has never received any sallary since he left America.

He is a native of America, lived at Marblehead when Troubles broke out, did not take an active part, but shew'd himself inimical to the measures of the Rebels. Left Marblehead about the 6th May, 1775 & came to this Province, thought himself hardly safe in person as he had been threatened. He was reckoned a Tory & they were told the Tories would be put in the front of the Battle. Hostilities commenced on the 19th April. Claimant left New England in May following, brought away some of his effects, there was then no Impediment to bringing away his effects if he had Convenience of Trunks—Vessels. Says his name was in the list Act of Prescription. Left his house chiefly in the care of his Wife's Grandmother.

In 1776 his house was entered upon by a Committee. Part of the effects were sold by his Wife's Grandmother, part of the effects were stole. The house was his own, built it himself. Purchased the Land about 1772 in considn £140 Str. Built the house at about 750 Str. There were two Mortgages upon it, one for £400 & the other for £800. No Interest having been paid, as Claimt. had no advantage of the house, the sum is now large, admits the Mortgages are to the full value of the Estate now. The Mortgagee took Possession in 1783, but have since brought an action here for the Debt and got Judgement. Claims Debts £1,410.

Produces an Acct. of Goods in his store in Decr., 1777, then seized by a Committee & sold. Produces Affidt. of Richard Harris that in Dec., 1777, several articles were then in Possession of the Committee as the Property of Claimant & sold, & the money, amounting to £427.19.11 Lawful Mon. of sd. State paid by the Committee of whom Harris was one to Henry Gardner, Treasurer.

Produces Rect. by Henry Gardner, Treasury Office, 18 Jan. 1780, recd. of Committee of Marblehead 427.19.11 of the Estate of Thos. Robie. Claimt. cannot fix the sterling amount of this sum.

The Act produced mentions only Sundry articles in the Hardware Business. Fras. Felton was one of the Marblehead Committee.

Gage dated London, 5 Ap., 1776, that Claimt. did before 19th Apr., 1776, deliver in writing a Declaration purporting his hearty Disapprobation of the Measures adopted by the Americans against Supremacy of Brit. Parlt.

It appears that the sum paid into the Treasury is in Sterling very little £20 or 30. According to several Letters from Claimant's friends in Marblehead, but Claimant says many of his effects were stollen out of his store, after they took Possession of it.

Produces an acct. of several articles sold by his Wife's Grandmother to amount of £209, laid out in Government Notes.

FOSTER HUTCHINSON, Esq., Wits. Knew Claimt. understood him a friend to Brit. Govermt. and an enemy of the Measures pursued by the Americans. Is satisfied he is amongst the persons proscribed. He was amongst the persons who address Govr. Hutchinson. He never recanted, some of them did.

REVD. MR. WEEKS. Knew Claimt. Considered him as a friend to Brit. Govr. always. Knew he had a brick house at Marblehead. Kept a store, chiefly in the Hardware Business. Left the Country early, came away before Trials & Proscriptions in general, but all the persons who addressed Govr. Hutchinson & did not recant were he thinks proscribed.

THOS. BROWN, Wits. Claimt. signed the address to Govr. Hutchinson. Remembers seeing his name in the Newspapers, proscribed as an Enemy to his Country & people, forbid to have any Dealings with him. This was owing to his signing the address to Govr. Hutchinson. He had declared against New Importation agreement.

Some of the persons who address Govr. Hutchinson recanted. Claimant never recanted.

Had a large Store & good Business. He suffered greatly in Trade in Consequence of his Declaration of his Principles, and of signing the address. His Business was almost ruined by it.

He was elected to public office more times than any other man in Lynn. From what he gathered and knew personally and his brother Warren, now living, has confirmed, I have obtained much that is given in this publication. He was a genial, whole-souled gentlemen of quiet thoughtful habits, his tendencies always being apart from a love of display.
